

SLEWS PROGRAM COORDINATOR - SAC/SAN JOAQUIN

About the Center for Land-Based Learning

The mission of the Center for Land-Based Learning is to inspire, educate, and cultivate future generations of farmers, agricultural leaders and natural resource stewards. The Center for Land-Based Learning cultivates opportunity for youth, for agriculture, for business, for the environment. A statewide nonprofit based in Woodland, CA, CLBL develops adaptive people and ecosystems by inspiring and training leaders to dig into themselves and the land in new ways. Now, we are seeding a vision for the future of agricultural and ecological stewardship in the Golden State and, with the right team members, we can bring that vision to fruition. Our organization values diversity, equity, and belonging and strives to be an inclusive and welcoming community.

Position Overview

The Center for Land-Based Learning is seeking a SLEWS (Student & Landowner, Education & Watershed Stewardship) Program Coordinator to operate programming in San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties. This position is full-time (average 40 hours/week) and works from Lodi, CA with travel within San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties and occasionally beyond. The SLEWS Program Coordinator position is essential in helping teach high school students leadership and workforce skills while becoming the next generation of agriculture leaders and natural resource stewards.

Job Details

- Reports to: SLEWS Program Manager
- Location: Lodi, CA
- Classification: Non-exempt, Full-time
- Pay: $/hour: $25-30/hour
- Benefits: Medical, vision, and dental benefits & access to Flexible Spending Accounts, supplemental insurance, 401(K)/Roth IRA options, Paid Holidays and Vacation/Sick leave.

Qualifications

- Demonstrated commitment to valuing diversity and engaging individuals and communities across cultural and racial boundaries.
- Experience successfully engaging individuals across cultural and racial boundaries and learning styles.
- Associates degree or equivalent work experience in agriculture, education, environmental science or related fields – Combination of work experience and education.
- Minimum of 2 years experience working with youth in a formal (classroom) or informal (camp, program) setting preferred, including developing curriculum, evaluation and classroom management in an outdoor setting preferred.
- Confidence in teaching and managing groups of students, especially high school, in various settings.
- Detail-oriented with the ability to communicate effectively with partners, teachers, and students.

Core Responsibilities

Job duties include, but are not limited to planning, coordinating, and facilitating the San Joaquin & Sacramento SLEWS Program:

- Recruit and train industry partners, teachers, and students to participate in the SLEWS Program.
- Coordinate and facilitate approximately 4 to 7 projects with a total of 3 hands-on student field days per project during the school year.
- Develop, foster and maintain good relationships with longstanding supporters and program alumni.
- Collect and organize program paperwork, participant surveys and teacher feedback.
- Serve as a team member to the statewide SLEWS Program and Youth Programs Teams.
- Regular, predictable attendance is required.
- Ability to get along and work effectively with others.

To Apply

Please submit a resume with references and a thoughtful cover letter outlining the unique value you will bring to our organization to HRtoGO at hr@hrtogo.com with subject: SLEWS Sac/San Joaquin Coordinator - Last Name. Application review will begin May 16, 2025 and this position will remain open until filled. For more details, please see our job description.

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy**

The Center for Land-Based Learning provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment and prohibits discrimination and harassment of any type without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, disability status, genetics, protected veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state or local laws.

We strive for inclusivity, equity, and diversity by attracting extraordinary people from diverse backgrounds and lived experiences. We promote equal opportunity in the recruitment, selection, training, compensation, promotion, and benefits of all employees.

Center for Land-Based Learning is committed to the full inclusion of all qualified individuals. In keeping with our commitment, Center for Land-Based Learning will take the steps to assure that people with disabilities are provided reasonable accommodations. Accordingly, if reasonable accommodation is required to fully participate in the job application or interview process, to perform the essential functions of the position, and/or to receive all other benefits and privileges of employment, please contact hr@hrtogo.com.